

May 29, 2020

USPGA is proud to announce the 2022 U.S. Open of Mini-Golf, which will be held at the Mossy Creek Mini Golf Course in Jefferson City, Tennessee. Mossy Creek Mini Golf Course is located in the East Tennessee foothills of the Smoky Mountains. The U.S. Open is held once a year around the United States at selected USPGA courses. This is first time the event will be held at the Mossy Creek Mini Golf Course.

The winner of the 2019 U.S. Open, Olivia Prokopova from the Czech Republic will be back to defend her Title. Past U.S. Open Champions and players from all over the world will be coming to the course to compete. The Tournament is open to anyone who wishes to participate and all skill levels are welcome. Also upcoming on August 29th of this year, the USPGA sanctioned Tennessee Open will be held at Mossy Creek Mini Golf Course.

For more information please see the USPGA website at <https://prominigolf.com> and MCMGC at <https://www.puttmc.com>.